21. The Promoter assumes no responsibility for lost, misplaced, destroyed or stolen Prizes once they are claimed.

22. By entering into the Competition the Participant is deemed to have accepted these terms and conditions.
23. The Promoter reserves the right to request winners to provide proof of age and identity and eligibility to participate in the Competition. In the event that a winner cannot provide suitable proof, the winner will forfeit the Prize in whole and no substitute will be offered.
24. Nothing in these terms and conditions is intended to exclude, restrict or modify rights which the Participant may have under any law (including the Australian Consumer Law) which may not be excluded, restricted or modified by agreement ('Your Consumer Rights'). Subject to Your Consumer Rights, the Promoter is not liable for any loss or damage however caused (including by negligence), suffered or incurred in connection with the Competition or any Prize. Any condition or warranty which would be implied by law into these terms and conditions is excluded.
25. As a condition of accepting a Prize, the winner (or the winner's parent or guardian), and any other person(s) sharing the Prize with the winner, may be required to sign legal documentation as and in the form required by the Promoter including but not limited to a further agreement to exclude liability of the Promoter for certain loss, damage or injury arising from the use or participation in a Prize to the extent the Prize is or includes a recreational service or activity.
26. The Promoter may conduct such further draws if, despite using all reasonable efforts, the original winners cannot be contacted. This will take place 1 month after the relevant draw date in order to distribute any unclaimed Prize.
27. All entries become the property of the Promoter. All entries will be entered into a database and the entrants' names and addresses may be used as detailed in the privacy collection statement which accompanies these terms and conditions.
28. The Promoter may cancel the competition and not award the Prize where circumstances beyond the Promoter's reasonable control prevent the Promoter from providing the Prize(s). Should the Promoter cancel the Competition the Promoter will:
 - (a) advertise that the Competition has been cancelled by placing a notice on the Competition's website on Participating Precincts's website;
 - (b) promptly destroy all entries received; and
 - (c) not use the personal information that any Participant has provided on the entry form.
29. Prizes are accepted entirely at the risk of the winner, and the Promoter excludes all warranties in connection with the Prize to the extent permitted by law. The Promoter reserves the right to substitute the Prize with a prize of equal or greater value (including where the Prize is unavailable) for whatever reason, subject to approval of the gaming authorities in each State and Territory where required. The Prize and/or any element of the Prize must be taken as stated and cannot be varied by the winner. No compensation will be payable if the winner is unable to use their Prize and/or any element of the Prize as stated.
30. The Promoter will not be liable for any loss or damage whatsoever which is suffered (including but not limited to indirect or consequential loss) or for any personal injury, loss or damage suffered or sustained (even caused by negligence) in connection with accepting or using the Prize or participating in this Competition except for any liability which cannot be excluded by law. The Promoter is not responsible for defective Prizes, lost or stolen Prizes or misuse of the Prize. All entrants release from, and indemnify the Promoter against, all liability, cost, loss or expense arising out of acceptance of the Prize(s) or participation in this Competition including (but not limited to) personal injury and damage to property and whether direct or consequential, foreseeable, due to some negligent act or omission or otherwise.
